

Ensuring the security of your establishment

QST-8 2 Days (14 Hours)

Description

Malicious acts which lead to damage to material goods, people and intellectual property are today a real risk for many companies and organizations. Taking this vulnerability into account leads them to initiate a real security policy. This new training allows you to identify your key risks and possible operational solutions to deal with potential malicious acts.

Who is this training for ?

For whom

Responsible for safety and security of establishments (industrial companies, services, communities). Headmaster.

Prerequisites

Aucune

Training objectives

- Know how to assess your vulnerabilities and define your priorities in terms of establishment security.
- Establish a security and organizational inventory based on the threats that may weigh on your site.
- Identify the most suitable means of protection.

Training program

Identifier et évaluer les risques de malveillance pour son établissement

- Identify the risks taking into account your context: Theft, damage to equipment.
- Economic and industrial espionage.
- Possible aggression against people reception and other collaborators.
- Hacking of the information system.
- Economic fraud.
- Knowing how to detect them in the field.
- Know how to prioritize risks: assess their severity and probability of occurrence taking into account your activity and the specificities of your environment.
- Scenario Specific case of an ERP (establishment open to the public) / Self-diagnosis.

Mettre en œuvre des actions pour répondre aux besoins en sécurité identifiés S'appuyer sur les acteurs clés en interne et si besoin des sociétés spécialisées.

- Reasoning elimination / reduction of risk, protection system but also transfer of responsibilities.
- Technical solutions to protect against intrusions.
- Job creation security, security service, rounds...
- Identify your rules regarding internal and external communication.
- Know how to manage visitors, fixed-term contracts, interns, external companies.
- Establish internal procedures.
- Take regulations into account: obligations regarding employee health and safety and security of establishments.
- Criminal law, responsibilities associated.

Évaluer votre système de sureté Savoir tester le dispositif : audits internes, contrôles inopinés.

- Emergency situation scenario testing and feedback.
- Engage in a process of continuous improvement using key indicators.