

English For Commercials

LAN-8 60 Days (30 Hours)

Description

English for Commerce are designed to help learners with a first language other than English to develop their English language skills in a business context.

Who is this training for ?

For whom

Anyone interested to develop their English language skills in a business context

Prerequisites

Aucune

Training objectives

- to be able to use and understand language related to general commercial and industrial topics

Training program

English for Commerce are designed to help learners with a first language other than English to develop their English language skills in a business context.