

Trainer, integrate digital into your teaching

FE-22 2 Days (14 Hours)

Description

The means of learning are diversifying. The systems become multimodal, integrating face-to-face, distance self-training, but also the use of social media. Learn by working in collaborative mode, capitalize and update knowledge, exchange... so many actions essential to learning, facilitated by these new tools. Their mastery, as well as the art of helping learners get started, is essential for today's trainer. It is for these challenges that this training prepares to integrate digital into teaching.
